

Alpha Gal: Advanced

- ☐ Sx: Urticaria, angioedema, or anaphylaxis 3–6 hours after ingesting beef, lamb, or pork. May have a history of a tick bite.
- ☐ Unlike common allergens, which are usually proteins, this allergen is a carbohydrate found as part of the glycoproteins (including the chemotherapeutic monoclonal antibody cetuximab)

Allergy in the news

ELEMENTS

CAN TICKS MAKE YOU ALLERGIC TO RED MEAT?

By Peter Andrey Smith March 6, 2014

THE
NEW YORKER

Radiolab Podcast Articles

Alpha Gal

Thursday, October 27, 2016 - 05:33 PM

